

Meeting of the Healthwatch Wandsworth Assembly and Voluntary Sector Forum

10th December 2015
12.30 - 3pm
(including lunch)

ROSE Community Centre, Ascalon Street
Battersea, SW8 4DJ

AGENDA

12.30 Arrival, lunch

1pm Welcome and Healthwatch updates

1.15pm The impact of NINE ELMS: 35,000 people are expected to move into the new development. What does it mean for local health services?

Consultation Facilitated by Christopher Rowland, Healthcare Lead, Nine Elms and Vauxhall Development

2.40pm Suggestions for topics for future meetings

2.45pm Mince pies and Networking

The ROSE Community Centre is located a stone's throw from the Battersea Power Station building. It is a short walk from Thessaly, Stewarts and Battersea Park rd including Queenstown rd and Battersea Park overground stations. The P5 bus stops directly outside the building.

